Billy Tinker By Harold Johnson	This is a gritty tale detailing the hardships faced by labourers (once known as "packsack miners") in Northern Saskatchewan mining camps. Billy Tinker offers a rare combination of realism and magic that draws out many of the contradictions and tests faced by Native Canadians and the working class. Billy's anger and the loneliness of his itinerant lifestyle are transformed by a sweat lodge ceremony, and the "little people" through whom he renews his connections to the land and his culture. CURRICULUM RECOMMENDED: Suggested Use: ELA 20- Starting Out-Beginning and Becoming.	813.6 JOH	Gr. 11
Breaking night [12 CD set] By Liz Muray	12 sound discs. : digital ; stereo. ; 4 3/4 in. Unabridged. NOTE The text contains drug use and episodes of prostitution. Educators are advised to preview before using with students.	SR 813.5 MUR	Gr. 12

	Liz Murray was born to loving but drug-addicted parents in the Bronx. In school she was taunted for her dirty clothing and lice-infested hair, eventually skipping so many classes that she was put into a girls' home. At age fifteen, Liz found herself on the streets when her family finally unraveled. She learned to scrape by, foraging for food and riding subways all night to have a warm place to sleep. When Liz's mother died of AIDS, she decided to take control of her own destiny and go back to high school, often completing her assignments in the hallways and subway stations where she slept. Liz squeezed four years of high school into two, while homeless; won a New York Times scholarship; and made it into the Ivy League. Breaking Night is an unforgettable and beautifully written story of one young woman's indomitable spirit to survive and prevail, against all odds. CURRICULUM RECOMMENDED:  Suggested Use: English Language Arts Grade 12- The Search for Self (B30).

Dear Jo: the story of losing Leah...and searching for hope By Christina Kilbourne	Maxine and Leah used to have so much fun chatting with boys online. Their other friends were jealous of their new relationships, and their parents were oblivious to the love notes being emailed back and forth. So what if Max and Leah lied about their ages and where they lived ... it was just a website ... just for fun. But when Leah disappeared, Max realized that they weren't the only ones telling lies online. Through her daily journal entries, Max shares the horrible feeling of betrayal, the crushing loss of Leah, and the struggle to move on after all that has happened. CURRICULUM RECOMMENDED: Suggested Use: Health Grade 5- Violence, Abuse, and Supports; Dealing with Peer Pressure.	CS 813.54 KIL 30 copies	Gr. 5
Exploding the reading: By David W. Booth	Includes bibliographical references and index. Encourages teachers to incorporate a variety of response modes to expand student meaning-making. Based on learning generated by one 200-year-old folktale used by 40 teachers and a thousand kids, the book explores how to "dig deep" inside the story. It demonstrates that when students share their personal interpretations with others, they alter, grow, reframe, and extend their understanding of the text.	428.4 BOO	K-12

Caring	1 digital video disc. (23 min) : sd., col.; 4 3/4 in.  (Six pillars of character)                      Burna discovers (by being a "reading buddy") the personal rewards that come from giving of yourself to help somebody else. When Burna has to make a hard choice between doing a community service project and playing soccer, she learns that caring is more about what we do than about how we feel. Video also includes a teacher's guide which provides discussion questions, writing assignments, follow-up activities, and a take-home page for parents.	DVD 177.7 CAR 2 copies	Gr. K-5

This program teaches that what makes us caring people is doing caring things. We learn that caring people respond selflessly to the needs of others and treat others with kindness, concern, and generosity. And we see the stirring account of a teenage girl whose exemplary acts of caring have enriched the lives of disadvantaged children throughout her community.	DVD 177.7 CAR	Gr. 6-12

Courage	1 digital video disc. (25 min.) : sd., col. ; 4 3/4 in.  (In search of character)  Close captioned.  Printable teaching guide included on DVD.  It takes a lot of courage to stand up for what's right when we stand alone. Or to do what's right despite disapproval and negative peer pressure. Or even to take risks that are for our own good. In this program we learn what it means to be morally courageous and how that empowers our lives. And we see proof positive in the courageous story of a teenage boy who broke from a gang and changed his friends so he could succeed in school and turn his life around.	DVD  179.6  COU	Gr. 6-12
Diligence	1 digital video disc. (25 min.) : sd., col. ; 4 3/4 in.  (In search of character)  Close captioned  Printable teaching guide included on DVD.  Diligence is power. Imagine what life would be like if we approached each important task with discipline and focus. If we always did our best. If we persevered even when things became difficult or discouraging. In this dvd we look at what it means to be diligent and what a potent force diligence brings into our lives. As a case in point we see the poignant story of a teenage girl with cerebral palsy, whose diligent approach to living has enabled her to pursue and attain ambitious goals despite her disability.	DVD  177.2  DIL	Gr. 6-12
Fairness	1 digital video disc. (27 min) : sd., col.; 4 3/4 in.  (Six pillars of character)  Essie learns that being fair to everybody can be a lot harder than it seems. When she has to decide which of her friends will get the starring role in the annual Popcorn Park play, Essie has a lot to consider--including the not-so-fair actions of the two competitors. 	Nothing makes people bristle like injustice, but often it's difficult to know what's fair and what isn't, or what to do when faced with injustice. This program helps young people understand how to live by the golden rule, what it takes to be a fair and just person, and how much our personal actions do matter. As a stunning example of individual effectiveness, we see the inspiring story of a teenage boy whose action in response to injustice launched a worldwide campaign to bring an end to exploitative child labor.

Honesty	1 digital video disc. (25 min.) : sd., col. ; 4 3/4 in. (In search of character) Close captioned. Printable teaching guide included on DVD. This video begins with the surprising account of two boys who triggered a fire storm of criticism by committing a simple act of honesty. But as we see from their experience and the teen discussions that follow, choosing to be honest or dishonest does something to our character. Lying makes us liars. Cheating makes us cheaters. But being honest frees us to be real. Not only do honest people have stronger, better relationships with others, but their honesty makes them better people and it makes our world a better place. Responsibility	1 digital video disc. (25 min.) : sd., col. ; 4 3/4 in.  (In search of character)  Close captioned  Printable teaching guide included on DVD  Responsibility is often regarded as a burden, but in this dvd we discover that it is actually a great source of personal power. It is the key to taking charge of our lives. As a case in point, we see the remarkable example of a young woman who grew up in poverty but transformed her life by taking complete responsibility for shaping her own future. We learn that responsible people do what needs to be done, fulfill their obligations, are accountable for their actions, use good judgment, and don't let people down.	DVD  177.1  RES	Gr. 6-12
Trustworthiness	1 digital video disc. (22 min) : sd., col.; 4 3/4 in.  (Six pillars of character)  Groark and Muggsy learn how important honesty and trust are in building good friendships. When Muggsy tries to impress Groark by stealing an expensive birthday present for him, Groark struggles to figure out the right thing to do, and teaches Muggsy that it is better to have friends you can trust than expensive toys. 	Trust is the basis of all good relationships and a cornerstone of good character. This program shows what it means to be a person others can trust. We learn that trustworthy people keep their promises, are honest, reliable, principled, and never inappropriately betray a confidence. And to help understand how trusting relationships are developed, we look at a documentary about a high school peer counseling program, where trusting and being trusted are the keys to a healthy school community.
