

What is an ASCD Connected Community?

ASCD connected communities bring together groups of individuals concerned with improving learning and teaching and who wish to align with ASCD. Each connected community determines its focus and definition. Connected Communities are defined by geographic boundaries and must be located in areas where there are no existing ASCD affiliates. Connected communities are one of the formal structures in which ASCD members provide leadership for self-organized groups within the ASCD community.

S-ASCD Connected Community

The S-ASCD Connected Community is made up of a wide range of people interested in promoting high quality teaching and learning for the Whole Child in the province of Saskatchewan.

Our goal is to improve teaching and learning, enhance leadership, and provide a forum for open discussion about a wide range of educational issues.

The Saskatchewan ASCD CC's mission is to promote membership in our organization from all stakeholders in our school communities. We wish to encourage participation from teachers, consultants, school based and senior administrators, university students, civil servants, health professionals and any other members of the educational community.

Membership Benefits

- ◆ Access to additional ASCD resources for teachers and students
- ◆ Access to national known speakers and authors and future provincial conferences
- ◆ Input on the foundation of a new provincial education organization with a focus on Whole Child Education
- ◆ Networking with other educators from around the province and around the world
- ◆ Opportunity to assist in fostering leadership, best practice and quality learning for the schools in our province
