ELP - Day 6
June 15, 2010

Goal: Teachers will reflect on assessment data in order to determine student growth and to observe the long-term benefits of participation in the project.

So that teachers...

- use their assessment data to plan instruction that meets their students' learning needs.
- reflect on their year in the project and plan how to continue their professional growth into the future.
  - observe the advantages for students as a result of continued participation in the project.

So that students...

- benefit from instruction targeted to their learning needs.

Who: ELP Team Members
Date: Tuesday, June 15th, 2010
Time: 9:00 - 3:30
Location: Education Centre
Facilitator(s): Pam Anderson Klassen, Sandra Quayle, Elaine Beres
Bring: Paper and pen

Overview:

Participants will spend the first half of the day analyzing their assessment data using the collaborative learning cycle. Participants will then consider how their teaching practices have changed throughout the project and make future plans. We will examine longitudinal data from schools in the project.
