

Web-Based Software Information Sheet

Name	Curricular Use	Access Information
Adobe Connect	Participation in online meetings requires no login information, Hosting online meetings or teaching online by sharing screens, uploading documents, and videoconferencing requires an account.	Individual teacher accounts can be created to host meetings by contacting sherig@srsd119.ca
Alberta Assessment Consortium	Staff members will find performance tasks by grade with rubrics. Wordsmith ideas for rubric creation also popular.	For staff only. See C.A.T. team representative at your school.
Animation Factory	Staff and students can find pictures, sounds, animations and backgrounds to enhance their Notebook, Powerpoint, or Webpage.	One username password per school. See C.A.T. team representative at your school.
BlackBoard	Participate in online classrooms. Special account privileges needed to teach courses, contact Ministry.	For staff only. Firstname.lastname is the username, password is MMDD of your birthdate.
BrainPop (also can be found on Student Links page)	Educational videos with teacher resources and question sets. Good motivational or introductory short explanatory videos.	One username password per school. See C.A.T. team representative at your school.
Career Cruising
Destination Reading/Math (also can be found on Student Links page)	Curriculum correlated class display lessons for Smart Board. Catchy tunes and engaging graphics. Assignments can be customized to individual student use as well with instruction and assessment and re-tests all automated.	30 generic teacher and student passwords can be obtained from C.A.T. team representative at your school. Individual accounts can be created by emailing ldryka@srsd119.ca for those wishing to customize the experience or track individual student progress.

Edmodo	Online Classroom: Teachers can hand out virtual documents, hold assessments, and communicate with students and parents.	SRPSD has a private domain within Edmodo. Join with your school code can be obtained from C.A.T. team representative at your school. Each user creates their own account.
Infotrac (also can be found on Student Links page)	Research databases ranging from automotive repair to young picture based with other specialized topics all with read along features and images.	No login required from SRPSD network (at school). For home login information see C.A.T. team representative, requires public library card.
Magazines, Journals, &amp; Newspapers (also can be found on Student Links page)	Popular Canadian Magazines, Journals, and Daily Newspapers all online and free of charge	No login required from SRSD network. Home login not available.
Media Smarts/Passport (also can be found on Student Links page)	Digital Citizenship, Internet Safety, and Cyberbullying training for staff and students and community members.	See C.A.T. team representative at your school; publishable in school newsletters, same division wide.
My Blueprint	High School course planner with career planning and resume maker.	Contact Patricia Yeske pyeske@srd119.ca for more information, all SRSD high school students and teachers have access.
R.O.V.E.R: Recommended Online Video Educational Resources	Curriculum correlated videos: Search by subject or grade and outcomes are listed.	Only available when connected to SRPSD Network (at school), or through your Blackboard account with the Ministry.
Rosetta Stone (also can be found on Student Links page)	English Language learning software. Students work at their own pace to learn vocabulary and language interactively - listening, reading, writing and speaking.	Accounts managed by Carlton EAL program, students in this program will receive usernames.
SuccessMaker Reading/Math (also can be found on Student Links page)	Students take a placement assessment and successmaker provides instruction and remediation on a per student basis. Teachers can monitor and reteach problem areas.	Every teacher and student has an account see C.A.T. team representative at your school. Teachers email Ldryka@srsd119.ca to have students placed in their class.

Tumblebooks  Tumblebookscloud Jr.  Tumblebookcloud  (also can be found on Student Links page)	Tumblebooks are online stories for younger students, Tumblebookcloud Jr. is audio books for Grade 3-8, and Tumblebookcloud is audio books for 9-12. Viewable on computer and ipad.	No login required from SRPSD network (at school).  For home login information see C.A.T. team representative at your school; publishable in school newsletters, same division wide.
World Book Online  (also can be found on Student Links page)	Online visual encyclopedia, dictionary, and video library. In English, Francais, and a version for high interest/low vocabulary. Craft Corner, Dramatic Learning, Science and Social Studies resources as well.	No login required from SRPSD network (at school).  For home login information see C.A.T. team representative at your school; publishable in school newsletters, same division wide.