Goal: For teachers to experience a lesson focusing on the 21st century skills and digital fluencies needed to engage students in creative collaborative learning of the outcomes. The experience will teach skills at multiple levels and instructional strategies so that teachers can design their own performance task tailored to their students.

- So that teachers .....
- Gain hardware and software skills and confidence
  - Learn instructional strategies to manage technology and students
  - Are knowledgeable about Digital Fluency outcomes and 21st century skills.
- So that students....
- Can create digital material that reflects their learning in a creative and collaborative fashion.
  - Can share their creations appropriately.

Overview: We will be making movies, music, and posting our creations online. You will learn how to use green screens to take and edit photos and videos, and compose music for these movies. The performance task we complete in the morning will be laid out so you have the resources to adapt it to your classroom. This will be differentiated for your level, you can do this with no prior knowledge at all. If you don't want to be in a video or picture, there are lots of options for shy teachers too!

For workshop information contact: Sheri Gunville or phone 764-1571
Deadline for Registration: April 10th, 2013
Maximum of 30 Participants

Registration will only be accepted through online registration
