Goal: To become masters of technology integration and a fountain of information for colleagues in our buildings. (It said goal!)

- So that teachers
- Are well equipped to provide equitable opportunities to their students for learning through technology
 - Are aware of the Digital Fluency Outcomes
 - Can receive and share technology integration information with their colleagues
- So that ALL students....
- Benefit from the opportunity that learning through technology provides

Who:	One person per school – the same person all year long. (Nov 21, Feb 13, May 9)
Date:	November 21, 2012
Time:	9:00 am to 3:30 pm
Location:	Education Centre
Facilitator(s):	Sheri Gunville and Stacey Monette
Bring:	SRPSD Laptop computer, no personal machines please.

Overview: This is the first of three this year. We will develop a technology infused performance task, co-teach, collect data, and assess the task with a rubric we make, and enter the student marks and our performance task assignment into our gradebook – over the course of the three days and time in between. The learning will be focused on the digital fluency outcomes from the Ministry which are new, and we will be matching fun online tools and engaging ways of learning with the 21st century skills our students crave.
