Overview: In the morning, we will explore full day Prekindergarten programming. This will include discussion with teachers already implementing full days and provide opportunity to ask questions and examples of elements that can be incorporated into the full day structure. We will follow up from our family engagement session with Debbie Pushor by sharing examples and learning about ways we can continue to extend these strategies moving forward. In the afternoon, we will reflect on the school-based team meeting process and the implementation of the resulting action plan. To finish, we will celebrate our achievements this year by sharing ways we have incorporated the 'I Can' statements and reflecting successes.
