

FRENCH IMMERSION TEACHERS

Saskatchewan Rivers Public School Division operates 31 schools in and around the City of Prince Albert. Teachers are attracted to our area because of the excellent professional, recreational, and life-style opportunities.

We invite applications for anticipated French Immersion positions, Kindergarten to Grade 12 for the current school year and the 2017/18 school year, in our three French Immersion schools which are located in Prince Albert and Debden.

Successful candidates will be fluently bilingual, possess a good understanding of language acquisition, exhibit superior interpersonal skills, and have an ability to utilize a rich variety of teaching strategies. Completion of an oral French fluency examination may be required.

For more information, contact Alan Nunn at (306) 764-1571.

Please submit applications including resumé, university transcripts, and the names of three references to the undersigned by as soon as possible.
