

Jaimie Smith-Windsor—Subdivision No. 3

Jaimie Smith-Windsor is currently seeking reelection for her third term as a Board Trustee. Jaimie is a strong advocate for student achievement and engagement, vulnerable students, First Nations & Metis Education and rural education. She believes that by meeting every student where they are at and setting high standards, every learner is capable of achieving excellence. Jaimie has served the Saskatchewan Rivers School Division as Vice Chair for the last four years. During her tenure as a Trustee, Jaimie has held positions on numerous local and provincial committees such as Academic Enrichment, Good Practices and Dispute Resolution, Policy and Student Voice.

Born and raised in Saskatchewan, Jaimie currently resides in the Hamlet of Elk Ridge with her husband and their three children. She has a Master's degree in Political Science and has held teaching and research positions at the University of Victoria and the University Canada West. Her academic expertise lies in health policy research and disability studies. She has received awards for social innovation and disability advocacy and for her contributions to provincial and national level sport. Jaimie is a published scholar and writer. She enjoys writing on a wide variety of topics. This year, Jaimie is celebrating 14 years as the owner of a thriving residential construction company in Lakeland. Jaimie contributes to her community in various capacities. She is the part time Administrator for her community Water Utility. She is one of the founding members of the Saskatchewan Adaptive Snow Ski Club. In her spare time Jaimie enjoys painting, volunteering, playing the bass guitar and, above all, being enchanted by her three awesome kids.
