Kisēwātōtātowin Partnership

History

On October 22nd, 2013 a Memorandum of Understanding was signed at Muskoday First Nation ,a formalized the Kisēwātōtātowin partnership.

Core Purpose

To create a mutually beneficial and respectful relationship between Muskoday First Nation and Saskatchewan Rivers Public School Division that builds on the strengths of both in providing greater opportunities for all children.

Mission

We will work collaboratively to ensure every student has the opportunity to succeed, proudly building on strengths and celebrating diversity, in a mutually respectful environment.

Vision

Partners creating opportunities for the success of all students.

Values and Beliefs

This partnership will be guided by the following belief statements:

Because we believe in inclusion, we will celebrate diversity in culture of acceptance.

Because we believe in respect, we build relationships based on honesty, trust, caring and sharing.

Because we believe in collaboration, we will be open to change by demonstrating flexibility, adaptability, and creativity.

Because we believe in courage, we will persist and preserve in an environment of change.

Because we recognize our shared history, we will celebrate our collective pasts through an ongoing effort to honour the spirit and intent of the treaties.

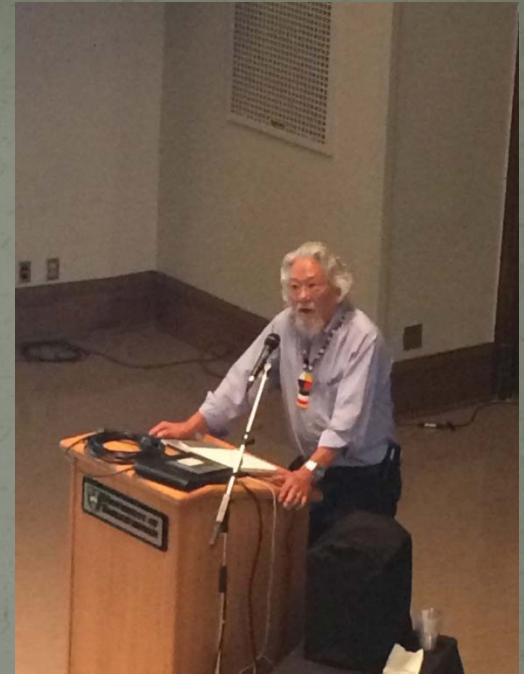

Because we believe in accountability , we will ensure effective communication with a focus on excellence in learning.
